Special Instructions: After returning to your home from the convention you are not to tell anyone how nice Northern Idaho is as a place to live. It is critically important that Convention attendees and guests please return page one of this form and payment to the Convention Treasurer Tom Swindle

Idaho and the rest of the nation have a picture in their mind of this being a snowbound, cold, windy place only steps from the arctic. Summer takes place from July 4th to the 8th. Just recently, the winds knocked down many ponderosa pine trees. Tress fell on more than 41 homes in the Post Falls area, including some Chapter members. This is a hardship posting. A place not fit for man or dog.
